Former Broward GOP Vice-Chair and Piper High School Teacher Posts Conspiracy Claims Surrounding The Death of George Floyd

Robert "Bob" Sutton

Update: Bob Sutton is no longer the vice-chair of the Broward GOP. He was removed from the party in 2018. We regret this error.

By Ryan Yousefi

Robert "Bob" Sutton — former vice-chair of GOP Broward County and Piper High School math teacher — is in some hot water over a bonkers, conspiracy-fueled Facebook post he made on Monday regarding the death of George Floyd.

(<http://www.coral Springspreschool.com/>)

co-worker of Sutton's and is a current professor at NSU's Fischler College of Education and School of Criminal Justice.

She who wrote on Facebook that she was calling out Sutton's "disgusting post" for being "ridiculously false," and "widely ignorant."

As of 5 p.m. Monday, the post remained on Sutton's Facebook page

We'll update this story if Piper High School or Broward GOP releases a statement.

Suttons' post strongly hints that the controversial killing of Floyd by police officers in Minnesota that has set off mass protests across the United States was all part of an elaborate hoax perpetrated by those who have a strong disdain for President Trump.

In the post, the Coral Springs resident breaks down the encounter, making baseless, inaccurate, and downright nutty claims that have no basis in reality.

Among the details discussed, Sutton calls into question is the fact that, in his twisted opinion, Floyd waited at the scene for this planned encounter and “passively died,” because, in his estimation, he didn’t appear to fight hard enough for his life.

Sutton also seems to claim paramedics that arrived were in on the hoax because they approached the scene “nonchalantly,” and that it’s possible the arrested officer in the incident, Derek Chauvin, could be an actor, because, according to Sutton, Chavin has never before mentioned to his neighbors that he was a police officer.

Sutton ends the post asking if those reading are “starting to see a trend,” and asks if they will “continue to chase the orchestrated carrots,” or “stop for a minute and look for the truth.”

As one might expect, Sutton is facing quite a bit of backlash for his comments, including one from a woman named Dawn Goldstein, who claims to be an ex-Piper High School

I re-posted this from elsewhere... Please check the facts and assist me in understanding the following.

According to the store clerks, George attempted to make a purchase with a fake $20 bill. The clerk refused the money.

George left without incident but decided to hang out in front of the store, just standing around.

In the meantime, just for practice, the clerk notified the police of the incident. The police then rushed right over because, you know, police in big cities are usually free to rush over to check fake $20s from people who have already left the scene. Happens all the time with low priority calls.

Imagine their good fortune to find George still standing there. That's what most people do after being caught with a counterfeit bill, right? Just walk outside and stand there.

I find it odd that these two men, Derek (the officer) and George, may have known each other well. They used to work together for 17 years, apparently.

I find it odd that the cop had his hands in his pockets while he put his knee on his friend's throat. Very odd.

I find it odd that they did not just put him in the back seat of the cop car. They were literally standing right next to the door.

I find it odd that a man who couldn't get air was able to yell out repeatedly for a very long period of time, and did not struggle to live. Why didn't he call for help with all those people standing around filming him? He just laid there and passively 'died.'

I find it odd that they just stood there and let people film this.

I find it odd that most of Derek's weight is on his right knee, the one on the ground, not the left knee on his friend, George.

I find it odd the paramedics arrived on scene, approached so nonchalantly, then placed Derek's very much alive (?) friend, George, into the ambulance without any sign of urgency.

I find it odd that Derek's neighbors never knew he was an officer. They stated they never saw him wearing a uniform coming and going.

I find it VERY odd that a cop started the riots. Thank goodness for an ex who cuted him.

I find it odd that nearly everyone who was arrested for rioting and looting were from out of state.

I find it odd that the National Guard was not brought in earlier, and that they were unable to get these riots under control immediately.

I find it odd that these staged events only happen in Democrat run cities.

I find it odd that this 'racist' narrative happened shortly after Biden's racist comment last week. I knew they were trying to distract us from something.

I find it odd that this happened just as COVID loses traction. Social distancing SUDDENLY flew out the window. Let's hope the masks and fear soon follow.

I find it odd that COVID happened the moment the impeachment failed.

I find it odd the impeachment happened the moment that Russian hoax failed.

Can you see the pattern? Will you continue to chase the well orchestrated carrots? Or is there something in you that will stop for a minute and look for the truth?

This is very interesting.
Still a tragedy.

I don't think anybody but those who need tin foil hats believe equally false but more insidious lie is Michael Brown in Ferguson who supposedly said "Hands Up, Don't Shoot." That is a big lie loudly and often by too many people, and used by race mongers. Brown never said it. He attacked a police officer and tried to then charged at the officer, forcing him to shoot. Don't believe
